Attorney Ronald J. Rosenberg Appointed to Judicial Conduct Commission

Ronald J. Rosenberg, an attorney whose office is in Nassau County, New York, has been appointed to the New York State Commission on Judicial Conduct by Senate Minority Leader John J. Flanagan, for a four-year term commencing April 1, 2020.

Mr. Rosenberg is a graduate of Hofstra University and St. John's University School of Law. He is a senior partner with the Garden City firm of Rosenberg Calica & Birney LLP. His practice includes commercial, business, real estate, land use and municipal litigations and transactions and business entity formation and litigation.

Mr. Rosenberg began his career as an associate with a Manhattan law firm and later started his own firm, the Law Offices of Ronald J. Rosenberg. He previously served as Chair of the Banking Committee and as a member of the Judiciary Committee of the Nassau County Bar Association. He has been a member of the Florida Bar since 1979. He has also been appointed by various Supreme Court Justices to serve as a Special Referee, Referee, and Receiver.

Mr. Rosenberg is a featured columnist in the Long Island Business News and has appeared on television as a legal commentator on various news shows including "Good Day, New York."

Additional information on Mr. Rosenberg and the other members of the Commission can be found on the Commission's website: www.cjc.ny.gov.

Background on the Commission

The Commission was established in 1978 by the New York State Constitution to review complaints of misconduct and disability against judges and justices of the State Unified Court System and, where appropriate, to discipline publicly those judges found to have engaged in misconduct.

The Commission is composed of 11 members, all of whom serve without pay. The Governor appoints four members (two of whom must be non-lawyers/non-judges), the Chief Judge of the State of New York appoints three members (all of whom must be judges) and the four leaders of the State Legislature appoint one each.

The Commission has a full-time staff operating from offices in New York City, Albany and Rochester.
